

giving
The Season of

May this season
spark love
and kindness in all our hearts.

Artwork by artist with lived experience of forced displacement, Hediyeh Monfared.

Dear

Wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a happy new year!

While this year has been tough on many of us, women, men and children who are seeking asylum have been hit the hardest by COVID-19 as they have had no safety net. They have had to rely on charities such as Jesuit Refugee Service Australia to get by. I have made a donation to support those most vulnerable in our community on behalf of you.

Have a joy filled holiday season!

From