Dear

Wishing you a very Merry Christmas! Thank you for all the work you have done for our community during this trying year. We pray that this holiday period gives you a time to reflect, spend time with loved ones and recharge.

Despite the festive season being a joyous time for most, women, children and men who are seeking asylum in our community are struggling during this time. This week alone, Jesuit Refugee Service Australia has had to help feed over 900 women, children and men due to food insecurity.

We hope that during this time of giving and charity, these communities remain in your thoughts.
