

An Examen to Accompany Refugees

As a work of the Society of Jesus, we are inspired by the founder, St. Ignatius of Loyola. As a man who was committed to “finding God in all things,” he introduced the Examen as a prayer for doing exactly that – taking a moment each day to find God in all things.

Use this Examen to inspire your commitment to accompanying, serving, and advocating for refugees and forcibly displaced people.

Become aware of God’s presence

Take a few deep breaths. It’s the same air that we all breathe, from the refugee on the road to those of us in the comfort of our home. It’s the breath of the Spirit that gives life to each and every one of us. God is present.

For some, God may still feel absent. Continue to explore this feeling of absence. Where is it especially felt? Where’s the space that God needs to fill?

Review

Take a moment to gather the information you know about a situation or crisis. Where is it happening? Who is being affected? Where are they going? How are they being welcomed?

Review this information. Acknowledge what may be missing. Allow this to inform your next step.

Pay attention

As you review the information, what strikes you? What do you keep returning to? How does it make you feel? Are you angry? Upset? Saddened?

Sit with that feeling and pay attention. What you’re feeling is real.

Choose one feature and pray from it

By this point, you may have identified one thing—a thought, an image, or a feeling—that you can't leave behind. It's something that sticks with you. Pray from it.

How can you approach it? Is there something you can do at home? Or are you being called forward to take action?

Review

Carry that thought, image, or feeling to the next day.

How will it form tomorrow? What will you do differently?

Move away from indifference and allow this prayer to become inspired action.

Closing Prayer

God of all people,

We pray that we may accompany those on the road,
Walking in solidarity with those forced from their homes.

May we serve them humbly, recognizing not the cost,
But freely giving from what we have.

Remove all fear and allow us to become a voice crying out in the desert,
Proclaiming the good news and advocating on behalf of all those forcibly displaced.

May we follow your example in being a friend to the excluded and a ready defender in their time of need.

Please keep us united as a family,
brought together by faith, hope, and love

Amen.
